MANGANO WELCOMES EAGLES TRIBUTE BAND DESERT HIGHWAY TO EISENHOWER PARK

Wantagh, NY – Nassau County Executive Edward P. Mangano today announced that Desert Highway – a Tribute to The Eagles – will perform at Eisenhower Park’s Lakeside Theatre on Saturday, August 28th at 7:00 p.m.

Since its formation, Desert Highway – A Tribute to the Eagles – continues to captivate and entertain major audiences. They attribute this achievement by performing a non-stop journey via numerous radio hits, top ten singles, and album favorites. Both musically and visually, they present a raw energy of excitement and sound of the Eagles. Desert Highway is a passionate group of six talented professionals of studio and concert tour veterans with major recording artists, who together perform ‘live’ the inspired rich vocal harmonies and intricate guitar styles made famous by this legendary group. The members of Desert Highway include: Mike Green – lead vocals, guitars; Larry Lippman – lead vocals, drums; Carl Bova – bass, vocals; Rich Naso – guitars; Ed Betancourt – guitars, vocals; and Mitch Lied – keyboards.

Much of the programming at the Lakeside Theatre is made possible through the Nassau County Hotel/Motel Proceeds Grant, which are proceeds from taxes on hotel and motel rooms in Nassau County. Since 2006, Nassau County has received more than ten million dollars from the Hotel/Motel Proceeds Grant, which also has assisted in historic building restoration and other cultural enhancements.

The Harry Chapin Lakeside Theatre is an outdoor theatre located near parking fields 6 and 6A in Eisenhower Park. Special accommodations are available for disabled patrons, including reserved parking, easily accessible restrooms, and a convenient reserved location on the hill. Assistive hearing devices are available for the hearing impaired. There is no formal seating at Lakeside Theatre, so concertgoers are urged to bring folding chairs. If weather conditions are doubtful, call (516) 572-0355 after 6:00 p.m. for updated performance information.

Eisenhower Park is centrally located in East Meadow, with entrances on Hempstead Turnpike at East Meadow Avenue and at the intersection of Stewart and Merrick Avenues.
