EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

OVERVIEW

The Multi-Year Plan (MYP) is used to guide decision making and long-term planning. When the Mangano Administration came into office on January 1, 2010, it inherited a sluggish economy, unaffordable labor contracts, and burgeoning out year budget deficits. The projected 2011 gap, inherited from the prior Administration, was the largest deficit that an incoming County Executive had faced in Nassau County's history. The 2011 projected deficit resulted primarily from negotiated labor contracts previously entered into that bestowed salaries and benefits far in excess of rational cost of living adjustments. Over the life of the contracts, total benefits derived from the labor settlements are projected to exceed the consumer price index (CPI) by over $500 million. The costs of the current labor agreements are simply not affordable or sustainable in the current economic environment.

Despite the inherited deficit, County Executive Mangano kept his campaign pledge by signing the repeal of the residential energy tax on his first day in office on January 1, 2010. To balance this tax cut, the Mangano Administration has reduced the size of the workforce to historic lows. Going forward, the Administration will continue to eliminate redundancies, seek efficiencies and right-size the workforce.

In order to achieve savings and maintain a streamlined labor force through the period of the MYP, the Administration created the Department of Shared Services in 2010. Consistent with the Administration's plan to create a more efficient, streamlined County government, the Department of Shared Services was formed as a hallmark of the Administration's effort to solve several areas of concern, which include reducing the cost of government, decreasing the size of payroll and staff and above all providing for greater efficiency. Beginning in 2011, back-office operations, including Purchasing, Human Resources and Accounts Payable, will be consolidated and streamlined in a more cost-effective manner. Prospective departmental mergers, such as the Department of Planning with the Department of Public Works, will give businesses and developers a simpler process to obtain construction approvals required to foster the economic development that is part of the efforts to restore the financial health of Nassau County.

Total salaries and wages, including fringe benefits, comprise nearly one-half of the overall County Budget. The 2011 Adopted Budget holds growth in spending to less than 1% (not including contingencies), despite dramatically escalating wages and salary deferrals inherited from the prior Administration. Labor concessions, totaling approximately $60 million, have been factored into the 2011 Adopted Budget to provide fiscal stability and ensure that the County lives within its means. In addition, the Legislature added $60 million of contingency to offset potential risk in the budget.

Taking action that will greatly enhance structural budgetary balance prospectively, the County Executive has proposed, and the County Legislature has approved, eliminating the so called "County Guarantee" of all property tax liabilities. Currently, the County is the only entity in the State which is responsible for refund liabilities of other taxing jurisdictions within the County.

This has increased the County outstanding debt by over $1.2 billion, and increased annual debt service payments by $150 million. The County portion of the property tax assessment liabilities accounts for only approximately 17% of the total. The County will begin to realize savings from this measure in 2013.

In addition, the County Executive has proposed, and the County Legislature has approved, eliminating the "hidden subsidy", where non-profit institutions did not previously pay for sewer services. The use of sewage facilities without charge by "Exempt Users" resulted in taxpayers bearing a higher burden of the costs of sewerage services. The new policy of the County will require Exempt Users to pay their fair share of the cost of sewer services. Many of these institutions, such as hospitals and universities, are high water users and place a disproportionate burden on sewer services. The new policy of the County to collect from these entities will discourage the excessive use of water for sewerage purposes in the County and will be a benefit to the environment.

The Administration will continue to streamline its work-force, eliminate inefficiencies, and establish a high level of services for the residents of Nassau County. It will continue to right-size government, a cornerstone of the first year of the new Administration, and provide for the health, welfare and safety of all Nassau County residents.

Labor Concessions & Early Retirements:

The County recognizes the dedication of the labor force and the major contribution it makes to the overall success of County government. The County, however, is enmeshed in financial difficulties left over from the prior Administration. Taxpayers cannot afford the cost of the County government we presently have. The County is seeking savings from its respective labor union partners to remedy the MYP financial gaps. During 2010, the County offered both its own retirement incentive and a New York State (NYS) incentive to its employees. This has led to a significant reduction in the County headcount. The County has removed many vacant positions and will continue to closely manage and limit rehiring. The right-sizing of departmental budgets will force management to generate operational efficiencies.

PROJECTED 2010 FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE

Due to actions taken by County Executive Mangano to close an inherited budget gap, the Office of Management and Budget currently projects that the County will end 2010 with a balanced budget in its five major funds (General, Police Headquarters, Police District, Fire Commission, and Debt Service Funds).

The Administration reduced the workforce by adopting two early retirement incentive programs: one offered by the State and the other offered by the County. Rehiring was severely limited so that many vacant positions remained unfilled. This significantly lowered headcount, in addition to bonding termination pay related to the incentives, is projected to yield significant savings in salaries and wages.

The Administration also held the line on equipment and general purchases, as well as contractual services. Additionally, the County ended its long-standing practice of failing to bill its towns and cities for reimbursement of non-resident tuition premium payments made on behalf of students attending the Fashion Institute of Technology.

The estimated surpluses from the actions described above are projected to offset a number of sizable deficits. They include a projected deficit in Federal and State aid, primarily due to a cigarette sales tax initiative, requested by the prior Administration, which was not approved by the State, and lower State reimbursements for early intervention costs. A shortfall is projected in Social Services, primarily due to increased caseloads and rates in programs administered by this department. Delayed installation of red-light cameras and a decline in tickets issued for parking and traffic violations are projected to result in fines being under budget. Investment income is projected to be under budget due to low available interest rates.

Public–Private Partnerships ("P3") Options and Asset Sales:

The largest component of the plan is the limited use of Public-Private Partnerships, privatizations, disposition of surplus assets, and debt restructuring. These options will be used as a bridge to the goal of a smaller, more targeted County government.

Public-Private Partnerships (commonly called a "P3") involve a long-term lease (not a sale) of municipal assets. The long-term lease is commonly called a "Concession Agreement." The Concession Agreement contains specific terms between the County and the private sector operator on how the asset is to be operated and maintained. The County would continue to retain ownership of the assets with a right to reclaim the assets if the private operator does not meet certain standards. During the period of the Concession Agreement, however, some degree of risk and responsibility would be transferred from the County to the private operator.

Additional considerations related to the structuring of the Concession Agreement for a P3 would include the County receiving an upfront payment and/or an ongoing stream of income from the private operator for entering into the Concession Agreement. An example of a good P3 candidate would be a wastewater system. A private sector operator would typically make improvements in the level of technology and service for the wastewater system. The Agreement should provide protections for labor and safety considerations and would have defined parameters for rate increases and ongoing capital expenditures.

A typical Public-Private Partnership would take approximately 12 - 18 months to complete, although this timeline depends on the availability of information and required regulatory approvals.

Wastewater assets are viewed as valuable P3 candidates by the private sector for a variety of reasons. These systems are considered to be essential infrastructure with limited competition and high barriers to entry. They also have long useful lives where net revenues are frequently linked to CPI or related cost of living indices. In addition, they generally provide stable operating income with a lower correlation to overall economic activity as compared to many other industries and produce strong cash returns with favorable and stable operating margins. Finally, these systems have reasonable and predictable regulatory environments with known annual capital expenditure requirements.

Expense Reductions

The County is continuing to explore options to achieve expense reductions, including reductions in subsidies paid to third parties and departmental reductions, eliminations and consolidations. As part of this effort, the Legislature has approved the creation of the Shared Services Department. The first function to be merged into this new department is that of purchasing. Other functions to be merged are accounts payable and human resources. As other opportunities are identified they will be also be merged under the Shared Service umbrella.

Revenue Initiatives

Another component of bringing the County budget back into structural balance is the use of additional targeted revenues. Some will be generated by using our existing assets more fully, getting better reimbursements for services provided, and adding to the menu of recurring revenue streams.

Assessment Reform

County Executive Mangano has directed the Assessor to improve the Department of Assessment (DOA), its valuation methods, staffing structure, and Tentative Roll issuance. Staffing in Assessment is being shifted toward a focus on reducing commercial liability, which comprises approximately 80% of refund payments. Most important, the County Executive has ordered DOA to correct the assessments from the January 10, 2010 Tentative Roll immediately and to provide those corrections to the Assessment Review Commission so that they may be incorporated into the April 1, 2011 Final Roll. In April 2010, the County Executive signed an Executive Order that requires properties to be reassessed every four years unless there is a physical change or administrative correction. Property owners will maintain their right to grieve their assessment annually.

In addition, the County Legislature adopted a local law in 2010 to encourage settlements of commercial grievances prior to the commercial roll going final. Such action will result in resolution of commercial claims before the County incurs liability and before taxes are paid. This program is voluntary for the 2010 tentative assessment and mandatory for subsequent years.

Finally, in addition to reform of the property tax assessment system, the County Executive has proposed, and the County Legislature has approved, eliminating the so called "County Guarantee" of all property tax liabilities. Currently, the County is the only entity in the State which is responsible for refund liabilities of other taxing jurisdictions within the County. The County portion of the property tax assessment liabilities accounts for only approximately 17% of the total. This action will greatly enhance structural budgetary balance in future years.

a - Preliminary - does not include balance of activity for the the remainder of the year not captured in the projection. Significant items for the Accounts Receivable write - off, Summer Chargebacks and Trigen utility charges are estimated and differences from those estimates can have a material impact on the projection. b - The 2011 Budget included State Aid at $2,360 per FTE. That amount assumed a $100 increase to the Governor's proposal which did not materialize and causes a shortfall of approximately $1.922 100 in 2011. It is reflected in 2012 13.14 above.
