EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

OVERVIEW

The Multi-Year Financial Plan (MYP) is used to guide decision making and long-term planning. Given the current economic conditions and high levels of taxation in Nassau County, the Mangano Administration will continue to place increased emphasis on identifying cost saving measures, practice strict fiscal discipline, and implement strategies that ensure long-term fiscal stability.

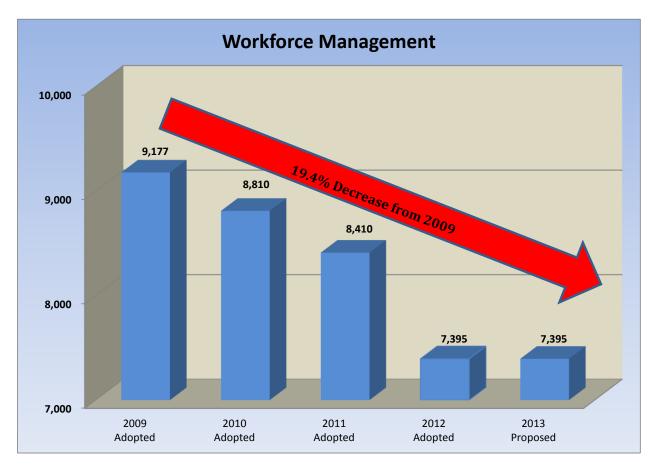

The out-year gaps identified in this Proposed 2013-2016 MYP are smaller in scale than those projected in recent years. On January 1, 2010, Edward P. Mangano was sworn in as the County Executive of a government that was saddled with unaffordable labor contracts that extended to 2016, a broken assessment system that produced a $100 million average annual new liability to taxpayers, and a stagnant economy that saw dramatic declines in sales tax revenues. These items collectively created a fiscal storm.

Despite record setting pension increases, rapidly escalating costs for employee and retiree health insurance and increased costs for various programs mandated by New York State, County Executive Mangano has proposed two consecutive budgets that reduced spending and did not raise property taxes. This was accomplished as a result of successful cost-cutting efforts during the first three years of his Administration. Some of the many accomplishments that have resulted in significant savings include:

- Reducing the County's budgeted workforce by 20% to the County's lowest headcount since the 1950's;
- Consolidating police precincts from eight to four;
- Eliminating the County Guaranty for tax certiorari judgments and settlements;
- > Creating a Public-Private Partnership for the delivery of bus services; and
- Creating a Public-Private Partnership for the delivery of healthcare services at the Correctional Center.

It is notable that since 2010 County Executive Mangano has fostered a government with less spending and fewer employees, including appointed positions. Compared to 2009, Nassau County spends $10 million less on contracts and has 20% fewer employees, including 33% less appointed positions.

The chart below illustrates the workforce reduction that has taken place since 2009.

The coupling of this workforce reduction with a NIFA imposed wage freeze has enabled the County to avoid the large increases in salaries and wages that would have resulted from the labor contracts.

Advances in technology and communications have enabled the County to consolidate police precincts from eight to four without compromising public safety. This consolidation saves Nassau taxpayers $20 million annually. In addition, the Community Policing Plan maintains all 177 patrol cars in their current neighborhoods, assigns 48 more police officers to patrol positions for a total of 88 more officers assigned to patrol since 2010, and redistributes administrative workloads more evenly among the four new precincts.

On January 1, 2012, the Mangano Administration entered into a successful Public-Private Partnership with Veolia Transportation that delivers bus service to Nassau residents at a cost that is $33 million less than what the MTA proposed and provides significant operational benefits. Previously the MTA did not achieve approximately 15% of scheduled bus deployment on a daily basis. The Public-Private Partnership with Veolia Transportation has improved this deployment to 100% and has improved on-time performance.

The Mangano Administration was also able to generate savings for taxpayers by entering into a Public-Private Partnership for the delivery of inmate healthcare services at the Nassau County Correctional Center. The initiative with Armor Correctional Health Services commenced in May 2011 and is generating annual savings for taxpayers of $7 million.

Discussion of Gap Closing Actions

Nassau County Sewer System P3

While the County has been able to reduce salaries and wages over the past two years, it has encountered explosive growth in fringe benefit costs, most notably escalating costs for employee health insurance and employee pension costs. Pension costs alone have increased nearly $100 million over the past three years. The expiration of the County's labor contracts in 2016 provides an opportunity for the County to realize significant concessions and to align labor costs with the revenues that the County receives.

Although no proceeds have been budgeted in 2013, Nassau County is continuing to pursue a Public-Private Partnership transaction (the "P3 Transaction") involving the assets of the County's sewer system (the "System"). A small fraction of the proceeds from this transaction will serve as a bridge until the County obtains labor concessions when the current contracts expire in 2016. More importantly, the upfront payment by the investor would eliminate an estimated 25% of the County's overall debt, a significant reduction that would result in lower debt service payments for years to come.

In their October 2, 2009 review of the Proposed MYP 2010 - 2013, NIFA stated that by 2013 substantially all of the sewer fund balance will be gone and significant tax increases will be needed. The Mangano Administration agrees with NIFA that the continued use of sewer fund balance will deplete the fund balance.

Faced with this depletion of fund balance, the Mangano Administration has looked for options to protect Nassau taxpayers. Based on recent successes with Public-Private Partnerships for bus service and inmate healthcare services, the Mangano Administration has explored a potential P3 Transaction for the System. A P3 Transaction may consist of (a) the concession, lease, or other similar arrangement involving the System, including but not limited to a Public-Private Partnership, or (b) the sale, transfer, or other disposition involving all or any portion of the System.

In 2010, the Mangano Administration inherited a System that was structured for failure. Since the consolidation of 27 collection and 3 disposal districts in 2004, the System has effectively consumed the fund balance of each prior district and utilized it to mask the true cost of operating the System. The System has suffered from poor planning and maintenance, and a decade of underinvestment. Overall, this has resulted in poor operations and unlawful discharges resulting in DEC fines.

Under any P3 Transaction, the County would receive an upfront payment from a private investor as compensation for transferring operations of the System to that investor. In return, the investor will receive all charges for System usage as well as assume responsibility for all System operations, maintenance and capital expenditures. The County, or another appropriate regulatory entity, will continue to ensure that all regulatory standards are met.

The preliminary findings from the County's RFP for a sewer operator and RFI for a concessionaire indicate that County residents would benefit greatly by the County entering into a P3 for the System. Most significantly, a Public-Private Partnership for the System will save money for Nassau residents as opposed to the status quo. Rather than implementing significant tax increases noted by NIFA, a P3 Transaction would freeze rates for the first two years, and limit subsequent rate increases to cost of living adjustments.

In addition, the Public-Private Partnership would provide better and more reliable service for County residents, as well as environmental benefits for the County's wetlands and waterways. Performance by the private entity would be guaranteed by contract and the County would benefit by the risk transfer of operating, capital and environmental costs.

Given the financial, operational and environmental benefits that the County would obtain from a Public-Private Partnership, it is incumbent for critics of the P3 to demonstrate, rather than speculate, how staying with the status quo, and the associated large tax increases, is a better course for the County to follow.

Relevant Precedents

Several communities across the U.S. are currently considering the Public-Private Partnership model similar to what Nassau County is contemplating for the System. These communities share the common goals of ensuring long-term operating performance while at the same time stabilizing rates and obtaining the capital needed to reduce current debt, make immediate system improvements and fund future capital improvements needed to maintain the utility infrastructure in proper working condition to maintain service levels.

The private sector's activity in this type of partnership creates significant value due to their ability to operate more efficiently and deliver capital projects more efficiently. This level of efficiency results in significant savings in annual operating costs.

Some examples of current projects that are moving forward include:

Harrisburg, PA

In April 2012, the City of Harrisburg received Statements of Qualifications from private firms in response to an RFQ to manage and/or operate The Harrisburg Authority's water, wastewater and storm water systems. In May, four proposers were deemed qualified by The Office of the Receiver for the City of Harrisburg and The Harrisburg Authority to participate in Phase II of the project, which includes a Request for Proposal.

Allentown, PA

In August 2012, the City of Allentown selected seven pre-qualified firms to move forward in the RFP process to compete for a concession to operate the water and wastewater system. The result of the RFP will be the granting to the successful proposer the exclusive right to operate the systems and to collect water and sewer revenues under a concession agreement over a term currently anticipated to be 40 years.

Other County MYP Initiatives

Labor Concessions

The County anticipates savings from labor concessions in various areas (e.g., employee contributions to health insurance) when the current labor contracts expire in 2016.

Strategic Sourcing and ERP Implementation

The County is pursuing efficiencies and savings through strategic sourcing and ERP implementation. Both of these initiatives are underway and were recommended by Grant Thornton LLP. The County is projecting annual savings totaling $12 million from the full realization of both of these initiatives.

Increase in Parking Ticket Fines

The County anticipates receiving $8 million from increases in ticket fines beginning in 2016.

Elimination of MTA Payroll Tax

The Nassau County Supreme Court recently ruled the MTA Payroll Tax unconstitutional. This payroll tax on Nassau County employers costs the County approximately $3 million annually and impacts businesses in Nassau County by up to $100 million.

Sale of Surplus County Property

Consistent with past experience, the County anticipates receiving annual revenue of $5 million from the sale of County property.

Value of New Construction

Consistent with past experience, the County anticipates receiving additional annual revenue of $2 million from the value of new construction. A recent Newsday article on the improvement of Nassau's home prices bodes well for this market-based initiative.

New York State MYP Initiatives

Elimination of MTA Station Maintenance Payment

Nassau County will be seeking New York State legislation to eliminate Long Island Railroad station maintenance payments. If successful, this would save Nassau taxpayers $30 million beginning in 2014.

Speed Cameras at School Crossings

The Nassau County Red Light Camera Program has enhanced public safety for Nassau County residents. The County will be seeking NYS legislation to further enhance public safety by installing speed cameras at school locations and at red light camera locations. When fully implemented the County anticipates realizing annual revenue of $12 million from this safety initiative.

Efficiencies in Early Intervention/Special Education

Recent audits performed by the New York State Comptroller highlight skyrocketing costs and fraud within pre-school special education programs throughout New York State. The County believes that numerous cost containment opportunities exist within these programs and projects annual savings of $10 million.
